NOW THE GREAT RUSH

SOCIETY PEOPLE BUSY GETTING READY FOR THEIR SUMMER TRIPS.

Parting Memories of the Happy Seaso Just Closed-Points About Where Our Friends Are Going.

A spring season in society as brilliant as the one just past is rare in the social annals of Richmond. Notable among the handsome and delightful private entertainments have been Mrs. Pleasants's reception to Mr. and Mrs. J. Triplett Haxall, Mrs. John P. Pranch's musicale, and the charming progressive-euchre party given by Mrs, Arthur Lefroy in honor of Miss Wood, of Halifay

Mrs. Philip Haxall's Thursday receptions will always be remembered as among the pleasantest of social events. pleasantest of social events.

The Hygicia is the next movement in the step social, and a number of prominent society leaders will spend the last weeks in June and the first of July at that delightful resort.

BARGE PARTIES AND DANCES

Although the social season is fast merging into summer, there is still a brave show of gayety. The thermometer, it seems, has but slight effect on the capacity of Richmond for pleasure. It is with pleasure that I note the barge parties and revival of dances at the Old Fump-House. This change of background to the same festivities as the winer is very pleasant, and ties as the winter is very pleasant, and adds greatly to the enjoyment of the occa-sion. Then, too, there is an informality about the entire affair that differs pleasant. y from the stereotyped manner of the winter.

The ladies of the Hollywood Memorial Association find they have realized quite a handsome amount from the tea recently given at the Soldiers' Home. It was certainly a charming affair and the ladies of the Ways and Means Committee, who deserve the greatest credit for its success, are Mrs. Raleigh Coiston, Mrs. Skinker, Mrs. George Mayo, Mrs. Christian, Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Pace, and Mrss Lity Plea-

PLANS FOR SUMMER

WHAT THE RICHMOND MILITARY WILL DO DURING HOT WEATHER.

Wrightsville-Entertainment of the Howitzer Dream Team-Brief Notes. While every one acknowledges that the military of this city is improving wonderfully and that their discipline is becoming nore rigid every day the soldiers have by no means forsaken pleasure, and nearly all of them are concocting plans to enjoy the The First regiment has nearly perfected all the'r arrangements for the encampment at Wrightsville, and while the duties papped out for the officers and privates mapped out for the officers and privates during this time will require a good part of the day, it is safe to predict that the 250 young men who go with the organization will not lose a single opportunity to have fun. Something more oppressive than the mere routine of army life is required to suppress the exuberance of youth, and many will be the toe-pullings, blanket-tossings, and "high-jack-and-low-games" which will occur right under Colonel Jones's nose but beyond his personal observation. ose, but beyond his personal observation.

Camp life is delightful at the worst, but where there is the murmur of "the sad sea waves" and the best of company (as it will be on this occasion) the life is blistful. The regiment is bound to have an excellent time.

NOT DECIDED WHERE TO C The Stuart Horse Guards, who, by the way, are now getting along very well in-deed, have not as yet definitely determined deec, have not as yet dennied; upon their plans, although their command-ant, Captain Enker, is meditating a "march" for the troopers which will pro-bably take place later in the summer—pos-sibly when the dog-star has the ascendency n the beavens. The cavalrymen w in the heavens. The cavarymen will take mounted and go from place to place, bivousking each night. All their provisions, crockery, glassware (bottleware), and biggage will be carried in wagons, which will accompany the train in case the scheme becomes consummated.

MOONLIGHTS IN STORE. The Richmond Light Infantry Blues want first and above all things to obtain their armory, and until they see their way clear in this scheme they will not busy themselves with any important steps lookthemselves with any important steps 100sing towards more frivolous pleasures. The company, however, will give several moonlight excursions later in the summer for the benefit of their building fund and these promise to be occasions of great enjoyment. The Blues, whatever steps they take, always like to have their numerous lady friends with them, and the latter are no means tardy in responding to all by no means tardy in responding to all invitations extended them.

WILL STAY AT HOME. Another military organization that al-ways stands "hand in glove" with the fair sex is the Howitzers. They have never finished talking about their trip to New Orleans, and will therefore take no steps to Orieans, and will therefore take hossing go away again this summer. The sunshine of prosperity beams more brightly than ever before upon the handsome cannon-neers, and to-day their prospects are ex-ceedingly bright. A plan is now on foot ceedingly bright. A plan is now on foo (but they beg the reporter not to publish it just yet) which will make the company even more attractive and popular than for-merly. Book on Virginia Corporations.

Mr. H. A. Atkinson, Jr., will soon publish his book on Virginia corporations.

The object of the volume is to give the law of Virginia as applicable to all corporations, foreign and domestic, the manner and mode of organizing, and every step to be taken until dissolution. It will contain all necessary forms to be used.

This book was suggested to Mr. Atkinson in his study of the subject, and is compiled from notes made at various times in his practice, and is published at the request of members of the bar.

ception at the Westmoreland-Those Who Will Be Invited. The committee appointed by the Bar Association to take charge of the reception to be tendered Chief-Justice Fuller were at work yesterday perfecting arrangements for what is destined to be one of the most notable entertainments ever given in Rich-At an early hour in the morning a telegram was received by Mr. Caskie from the Chief Justice expressing his appreciation of the compliment extended by the Bar Association and designating Tuesday night as the time when it would be most agree-ble to him to accept their hospitality.

Much regret is felt by the Committee on Invitations because of their mability to secure sooner the invitations which they desire to use in connection with the reception. The engravers are busy at work, but because of the short time accorded them it is feared that the cards will not reach the committee before Monday evening for distribution.

During his stay in Richmond the Chief Justice, in company with Judges Hughes and Bond, will stop at the Exchange. His daughter, Miss Mary Fuller, will be the guest of Miss Page, Fifth and Grace. The reception will last from 9 to 12 The reception will last from 9 to 12 clock. It will be an elegant affair if fine owers can make it so.

Judge Robert W. Hughes is in the city. He does not consider it probable that Chief-Justice Fuller and Judge Bond will request him to sit with them Tuesday when the new Appellate Court is organuntil July 1st, and then only in particular cases. It is probable that it will be nearly ness to be disposed of.

It is understood that the appointment of marshal and clerk, both of which positions are quite lucrative, will not be made until Looking at Our Fire-Engines. The Roanoke Fire Committee and Chief terday looking at our fire-engines.

Chief Puller carried them to the Laurelstreet house and showed them the Button engine located there. He then took them to the Broad-street house, and had the Silsby rotary carried down to the canal at Seventh street and put to work. Friday the Roanoke people inspected the La France engine in Baltimore.

The first lodge of sorrow ever held in the United States by the Junior Order United American Mechanics will occur at Corcoran Hall on Sunday afternoon, June 21st. It will be under the auspices of Hope Council, No. 25, in honor of the memories of W. C. Chapman, Jr., and R. A. Mays, deceased members of that council.

The following programme has been arranged: Opening remarks by William M. Lipscomb, Jr., past State councillor, presiding; opening ode, reading the Scriptures, praver, address by C. A. Rawson, State councillor: music, address by Thomas B. Ivey, State Council secretary; music, address by G. E. Howard, State vice-councillor, closing ode, benediction. All the Richmond and Manchester councils will attend in a body in full regalts. cils will attend in a body in full regalia, and the public is invited.

Owing to Mr. Powell's sad accident and consequent illness, the closing exercises of the Richmond Seminary were held quietly in the school-room, at No. 3 cast Grace street, Friday afternoon, June 12th, at 5 o'clock. In spite of the inclement weather there was a full attendance, and Dr. R. A. Lewis kindly delivered the prizes and diplomas to the young ladies, as fol-
